

Special Guest Chef

MICHAEL GINOR

HUDSON VALLEY FOIE GRAS | USA | HOSTED BY FOUR SEASONS HOTEL SINGAPORE

Michael Ginor is the President of America's largest foie gras producer, Hudson Valley Foie Gras. He is also a noted chef, food writer and member of several prestigious culinary institutes. In addition, Ginor is also actively involved in many facets of the culinary world, including product development, creating of gourmet and charitable events, workshops, and demonstrations.

Associated with the James Beard Foundation, where Ginor is a member of the National Advisory Board, Hudson Valley Foie Gras has received numerous awards including the Gold Merit Award from Chefs in America, the Awards of Excellence from James Beard Foundation, and the Five Star Diamond Award from the America Academy of Hospitality Sciences.

A strong supporter and a 'Friend of the World Gourmet Summit', Ginor's heavenly foie gras cuisine can be sampled at the various World Gourmet Summit events as well as the Friends of James Beard Foundation Charity Dinner on 12 April 2003.

Proudly presented by

citibank

A member of citigroup

Culinary Masterclass

World Gourmet Summit 2003