Dear Peter and Team,

I wish to express my thanks and satisfaction at being chosen to headline this years entertainment for the WGFS 2002.

As the guest chef from China so eloquently demonstrated, the lines between different art forms are vague, if not non-existent.

Those who attended this years' event were certainly witness to a showcase of excellent food, music, and service.

It's my belief that in our respective fields of expertise, we spurn each other on to greater heights when we successfully work together with common interests and a unified goal. I believe our companies share that sort of relationship.

My passion and confidence in my music and its presentation, is certainly matched in intensity by my admiration for your own (and that of your teams) dedication and accomplishments.

I look forward to working with you again!

Yours Truly,

Greg Chako
