

Forward April

World Gourmet Summit

Various Locations

For two weeks starting from April 19, food and wine lovers can look forward to a wide range of exciting gastronomic events organised at the World Gourmet Summit. This year, the theme is 'A Theatre of Taste' and epicureans can experience not only a showcase of gastronomic excellence but also programmes that feature segments of the performing arts. No less than 12 internationally renowned masterchefs will be in town, plus two Norwegian ambassador chefs and four special guest chefs. There will be 11 wineries presented as well. Highlights include the inauguration dinner at the Four Seasons Hotel, the gala dinner at the Grand Hyatt Singapore, and the Le Cordon Blue Evening at The Regent Singapore. Book now for the popular master chef safaris, the culinary, as well as wine master classes. April 19 - 30.

Exotic Flavours of Thailand

Singapore Marriott Hotel

The Singapore Marriott Hotel is going Thai with its mouth-long offering of authentic Thai cuisine. Much of the excitement is scheduled in the first four days, from March 31-April 3 when diners can enjoy a buffet of sumptuous Thai cuisine and be entertained by dance and music at the poolside. Feast on a gastronomic selection of Thai delicacies at the eight live cooking stations by Thai guest chefs from Bangkok and Phuket. Aside from fine food and live performance, there will be rightly lucky draws with prizes that include trips to Bangkok and Phuket, as well as goodie bags. After the festivities, Thai specialities will be served a la carte at the Garden Terrace Bar & Grill until May 2.

Treasures of Yangzhou

Pearl River Palace Cantonese Restaurant

The Yangzhou food promotion at Pearl River Palace is back. Three highly-regarded chefs from Yangzhou (they have spent several years studying Chinese cuisine and all have authored cookbooks and published articles) will be in town during the 15-day promotion to present the distinct flavours of their hometown. Must-try dishes include crystal pork terrine, lion's head (meatball with crabmeat and crab roe in superior soup), shredded duck with water chestnut, and more. For reservations call 6332 9733. April 16 - 30.
