PRESS RELEASE

World Gourmet Summit 2010
11 – 25 April 2010

The Eu Yan Sang Epicurean Experience -
An Infusion of Quality Herbs Into Japanese Style Cuisine
At the World Gourmet Summit on 21 April 2010

Singapore, 6 April 2010: Singapore's trusted brand for quality herbs, Eu Yan Sang continues to intrigue gourmards with a special dinner at the World Gourmet Summit on 21 April, at Capella Singapore on Sentosa Island. Featuring a six-course meal by chef-owner Ronnie Chia of Tatsuya Japanese Restaurant, a highly-acclaimed dining establishment in Singapore and Executive Chef Jakob Esko of Capella Singapore, the unique Japanese-style cuisine presented at this dinner will incorporate quality Eu Yan Sang herbs, and is paired with premium vintages from Grand Vin for a truly sensational epicurean experience.

In showcasing a creative way of incorporating its premium herbs, Eu Yan Sang aims to indulge diners with a surprising twist, by demonstrating how herbs can be used with everyday cooking. The nourishing benefits of these herbs add to the enjoyment of the meal, as one can relish good food knowing that it will be good for health.

"The World Gourmet Summit showcases the finest cuisine around the world and plays an instrumental role in bringing together various cultures through culinary delights. We have worked with various culinary maestros and have successfully demonstrated that Chinese herbs can go very well with different cuisines featuring east-west fusion and seafood menus. This year, we are pairing the herbs with Japanese cuisine and the result is truly sensational", says Richard Eu, Group CEO of Eu Yan Sang International Ltd.

The six-course menu will feature the cuisine of Chef Ronnie Chia, renowned for his excellent Japanese-style creations. Take delight in the Chef's exquisite cuisine that includes the Soup of Double-boiled Tuna Belly with Tofu, infused with mitsuba, Solomon's seal, ophiopogon, lily bulb, poria, galanga Chinese wolfberries & American ginseng; and the Cod fish marinated with Sake, featuring seven spice, bonito stock and tangerine peel, with the appetiser and dessert courses prepared by Chef Jakob Esko and his culinary team. In keeping to the Japanese themed menu, Chef Jakob Esko and his culinary team will compliment with the appetizer and dessert dishes - both adopting Japanese touches in the form of the Japanese Style Cheesecake dessert, prepared with Chrysanthemum Jelly & Hawthorn Raspberry Sorbet.

For more information on the various herbs used, and their benefits, please refer to Annex A.

Chef Ronnie Chia

The World Gourmet Summit Awards Of Excellence Asian Ethnic Chef of the Year for two years running in 2007 and 2008, Chef Ronnie Chia is the epitome of excellence in Japanese cuisine. Widely recognised and regarded as one of the best Japanese chefs in Singapore, one mention of his name immediately evokes the wondrous cuisines of the land of the rising sun. With nearly three decades of experience, Chef Chia executes his continuing vision of providing diners with high quality traditional Japanese cuisine. Dine at his award-winning Tatsuya Japanese Restaurant to fully comprehend the culinary ingenuity of this gourmet maestro.

Chef Jakob Esko

Executive chef of Capella Singapore, Jakob Esko has seen the world and has brought his experiences from Michelin-starred restaurants to Singapore's Lion City. When asked what he hopes to achieve in Singapore, he says "I strongly believe that what sets Capella Singapore apart would be our ability to create highly personalised experiences for each one of our guests."

Background

World Gourmet Summit

The World Gourmet Summit is an international gastronomic extravaganza organised by Peter Knipp Holdings Pte Ltd (PKH) and supported by the Singapore Tourism Board (STB). The World Gourmet Summit celebrates its 14th instalment in 2010.

An annual epicurean festival that showcases the intricate craftsmanship of prestigious chefs; it is also an exposition of the internationally acclaimed vintners. Encompassing a series of dazzling events like the vintner dinners and celebrity dinners, it is a gourmet spectacular specially crafted for the discerning individuals who appreciate fine wines and gourmet cuisine.

World Gourmet Summit Awards Of Excellence 2010

In April 2010, the World Gourmet Summit (WGS) Awards Of Excellence (AOE) looks forward to celebrating its tenth year since its inception in 2001. Over the decade, more than a hundred of the best food and beverage (F&B) industry partners have been recognised for their efforts in bringing the gastronomic scene in Singapore to the next level.

“I cannot stress more that the demand for skilled F&B professionals is at its peak. Now, more than ever, this industry requires passionate, driven and competent individuals to spearhead its advancement and I am positive that new benchmarks of excellence will be set during this time of increased competition among industry players,” said Peter A Knipp, CEO.

Lauded as the only national accolade which recognises the excellence of F&B professionals and establishments, the WGS Awards Of Excellence has scaled over the years from its initial 13 awards to its current 27 awards and six scholarships.

Hall Of Fame (<http://hof.wgsawards.com>)

Established in 2009 to applaud the continuing efforts of industry players who consistently shine to the fullest and have played an integral part in shaping the outstanding culinary scene in Singapore, the Hall Of Fame honours F&B professionals and establishments who have received an award at least three times in the same category.

The pioneer cohort includes nine recipients — comprising celebrated and established chefs, sommeliers, restaurants and an institute. Soon to join the ranks, we also anticipate the consortion of the fourth chef inductee in 2010 — Chef Eric Teo, for being the recipient of Executive Chef of the Year Presented by Tabasco for 2006, 2008 and 2009.
