A Constellation Of Stars

attending Singapore's Foremost Gastronomic Event
at World Gourmet Summit 2010

In the culinary universe, there are no boundaries. Oftentimes, you will find different ingredients, elements and visual aspects from various cuisines around the world encompassed in a single dish. This year, World Gourmet Summit 2010 will present you with an alignment of a constellation of stellar masterchefs sought from all corners of the globe. Besides concerting their congregation at the gastronomic extravaganza, we have also paired the culinary luminaries with our own star-studded lineup of hosting chefs to orchestrate cosmic culinary collisions to excite your taste buds.

Armin Leitgeb from Les Amis and Frédéric Colin from Brasserie Les Saveurs at The St Regis Singapore will showcase the best of their French flair with Michelin-starred masterchefs Dieter Kaufmann and Michel Rostang, while Emmanuel Stroobant from Saint Pierre will unleash his prowess in French cooking at the Veuve Clicquot library collection dinner. Diego Martinelli from The Lighthouse at The Fullerton Hotel Singapore and Frank Kilian from Pontini at Grand Copthorne Waterfront Hotel Singapore will amaze you with their Italian pedigree with the inimitable two-Michelin-starred masterchefs Alfonso Iaccarino and Andrea Berton.

Sparking a unique combination in Chinese cooking, Yong Bing Ngen from Majestic Restaurant will team up with one-Michelin-starred masterchef Alex Chow and Yim Yiu Wing from The China Club will be joining forces with two-Michelin-starred masterchef Lai Yau Tim. Vinod Kumar from Rang Mahal will display the wonders of Indian cuisine with renowned masterchef Vivek Singh while local celebrity chef Sam Leong from My Humble House representing Tung Lok Restaurants (2000) Ltd will challenge the boundaries of cuisine types with Japanese masterchef Hal Yamashita. Also embodying the belief that food transcends borders, Brian Cleere from mezza9 at Grand Hyatt Singapore will showcase the best of Asian flavours with one-Michelin-starred masterchef David Thompson, while Jakob Esko from Capella Singapore will work with Ronnie Chia for the Eu Yan Sang dinner which will be paired with wines from Grand Vin.

International pairings will reign as Wolfgang Ranner from Oscar's at Conrad Centennial Singapore will host Spanish masterchef Dario Barrio, while Lucas Spoel from InterContinental Singapore will welcome one-Michelin-starred masterchef Juan Pablo Felipe.

Freshness is key, according to Ryan Clift from Tippling Club and Jason Dell from The Nautilus Project, who will be hosting like-minded masterchefs from down under – Ben Shewry and Greg Doyle, who will be assisted by Grant King. Demonstrating their cooking philosophy, these pairings will illuminate your senses with their fresh creations.

The sweet-toothed will delight in the collaboration between Vincent Bourdin, regional pastry consultant for Valrhona, Pang Kok Keong, executive pastry chef of Canelé Pâtisserie Chocolaterie and pastry maestros Frédéric Bau, Gianluca Fusto and Loretta Fanella for the decadent chocolate dinner and chocolate workshop.
